~ Tonight's Guest Performers ~

Jessica Holmes – Soprano

Jessica's musical life began as a member of the Oldham Girls' Choir. However, singing took a back seat to study the piano and flute. Jessica came to Durham in 1997 to read music and soon discovered that she enjoyed choral singing. She became a member of Durham Polyphony and Durham University Chamber Choir, and was also a choral scholar at University College. She graduated in 2000 and now teaches music at Durham Johnston School, as well as singing with Palatinate Voices and the Durham Cathedral Consort of Singers. She has performed Mozart's Laudate Dominum, Haydn's Nelson Mass and Mozart's Requiem with Northern Sinfonia, and Stanford's Magnificat in G with the BBC Philharmonic. Jessica is the soloist in Mendelssohn's Hear My Prayer on the recent CD made by the Consort. Recent performances have included Purcell's Dido & Aeneas, John Blow's Venus & Adonis, Haydn's Nelson Mass, Vivaldi's Gloria, Bach's Mass in B Minor, Bach's Christmas Oratorio, Vaughan Williams' Benedicite, and Bach's St Matthew Passion.

Emma Banks – Contralto

Emma has lived in the North East for the last five years having spent time studying and working in London and Liverpool. During this time, Emma has had experience of both choral (Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Chorus, London Symphony Chorus and Northern Sinfonia Chorus) and solo singing (various local choirs and a small group called The Flash Gordons). Her repertoire includes works by Haydn, Mozart, and Goodall as well as Bach's St John Passion and Rossini's Petite Messe Solennelle.

Chris Vernazza – Tenor

Although a keen singer at school in Lancashire and at university in Sheffield, it wasn't until Chris moved to the North East in 2004 that he began to develop his singing further, studying with Shirley Wilkinson. Recent engagements as a soloist have included Bach's St John Passion, Mozart's Coronation Mass, Hummel's Mass in Eb and Rossini's Petite Messe Solennelle, and Howells' Requiem with the Jesmond Consort.

Additionally, Chris currently sings in several choirs including the Northern Sinfonia Chorus, performing throughout the region, the UK and abroad with internationally renowned conductors and soloists. He is a member of the vocal quartet Marcato, performing concerts and functions throughout the region. When not singing, Chris's "day job" is as a lecturer in dentistry at Newcastle University, and he enjoys his youth volunteer work.

Robert Seaton – Bass

Robert has performed with the Hexham Orpheus Choir on many occasions and we are pleased that he is able to join us again tonight. Performances with the choir in recent years have included Handel's Messiah, Fauré's Requiem, Vaughan Williams' Five Mystical Songs, Brahms' Requiem and Orff's Carmina Burana.

Robert is well-known in the North of England for performances in all the major choral works: Beethoven's Choral Symphony, Haydn's Creation, the Requiems of Mozart, Brahms and Fauré, and the many choral works of Handel. He has sung the Verdi Requiem, Rachmaninov's The Bells in Russian and Bloch's Sacred Service in Hebrew. He has also performed at festivals and charity concerts around the country.

Michael Haynes – Organ

Michael studied at The Birmingham Conservatoire and The Royal Academy of Music. He has been Director of Music at Hexham Abbey for 10 years, where he runs a Boys' and Men's Voices Choir, a Girls' Choir and an adult Chamber Choir. Previously he had worked at St Alban's Cathedral (Organ Scholar), Winchester College (Assistant Organist), Clifton College (Assistant Director of Music), Roedean School (Organ/Piano Teacher) and as Director of Music at the University Church in Cambridge. Michael holds a 1st Class Honours Degree in Music and the Fellowship and Choir Master Diplomas of the Royal College of Organists. He has recorded CDs and featured in various broadcasts both as an organist and choir director, and given recitals at King's College Cambridge and Westminster Abbey.

Glenn Davis – Conductor

Glenn has been involved with choral music all his life, directing the Tynemouth Consort and then, from 1979 to 2007, the Priory Singers. Under Glenn's leadership the Hexham Orpheus Choir has gone from strength to strength. Concerts have included Brahms' Requiem, Mendelssohn's Elijah and Handel's Messiah in Hexham Abbey. In 2006 the choir gave the first performance in the North of England of the Missa Aedes Christi by Howard Goodall. In 2009 the choir gave a rapturously received performance of Carmina Burana by Carl Orff and in 2010 an outstanding performance of the Petite Messe Solennelle by Rossini.
